Cut One, Christine Di Staola

Title: Delicate
Poet: Alexa Liverano
Artwork: Vision

Her skin is made with warm butterflies,
 Softer than feathers, almost like clouds.
 Her heart is filled with beautiful cries,
 Never too ugly, always so loud.

Her marvelous strength protects her home,
 The place where she loves and creates.
 She gives you power, teaches you to grow,
 But the demons who come, she hates.

They ignore her desperate pleas to retreat,
 The demons tear apart her children.
 She hurls at them her branches and trees,
 But they always stay, they never leave.
